The Vision for the Parish

In 15 years' time, Hazelwood Parish will be relatively unchanged – as a peaceful, rural area with its character in harmony with the landscape. This will be achieved by protecting and maintaining the character of the built environment and preserving the landscape.

The Parish will be a welcoming and thriving community for all ages. It will grow slowly providing a high quality environment in which to live, work and visit. The special landscape which defines the Parish will continue to inspire the community.
